

COOL RUNNINGS

The band has been together for over two years with one or two line up changes in between.

The lyric content of the band's material is a mixture of 'social comments', 'politics' and pure 'lovers rock', all of which is written by themselves.

Cool Runnings first single release was entitled 'Robin Hoods of the Ghetto' and was out on a local Bristol independent label called RAKA (12" only).

The single received several airplays on Radio One by both John Peel and David Jensen. The first national T.V. spot for Cool Runnings was on Channel 4's Rockers Road Show hosted by Mikey Dread.

COOL RUNNINGS line up is as follows:-

MARK TUCK	-	Keyboards & backing vocals
